

DCP Faculty Service Award

Purpose: Recognize faculty members for excellent service consistent with the academic mission of the College

Evaluation Criteria:

- Leadership and sustained commitment to service
- Clearly demonstrates a record of excellent service consistent with the academic mission of the College: the transmission of knowledge through teaching, the generation of knowledge through research and creative activity, and the use of knowledge through service
- University service furthers the mission of the College and the University
- Public service benefits citizens and/or the environment at local to international levels
- Professional service furthers the discipline and/or profession

Eligibility: All DCP faculty and lecturers, not be a prior winner of the DCP Faculty Service Award within the past 5 years

Nomination: Nominations may be submitted by faculty. Nominations must be forwarded to the program/unit chair or director. Each graduate program is limited to one nomination.

Application: Nominees need to send a one-page narrative describing your service contributions in relation to the College's mission; A current curriculum vitae which clearly emphasizes your service; and a letter of support from your Chair\Director to the Committee.

Frequency: 1 award annually

Judge: DCP Awards Committee will provide a recommendation for the Dean. Dean will make a final decision.

Award: Monetary award of $300.00; plaque; Recognition at DCP Faculty and Staff Awards