

DCP Graduate Faculty Teaching Award

Purpose: Recognize faculty members for their outstanding teaching performance of doctoral students or terminal degree students

Evaluation Criteria:

- Evidence of continued outstanding teaching performance
- Teaching evaluations for past 3 years
- Letters of support from students

Eligibility: All graduate DCP faculty and lecturers, not be a prior winner of the DCP Graduate Faculty Teaching Award

Nomination: Nominations may be submitted by graduate students, faculty, and staff. Nominations must be forwarded to the program/unit chair or director. Each graduate program is limited to one nomination.

Application: Nominees need to submit a 1 page (max) statement describing their teaching philosophy, 3 letters of support from previous or current students, a list of courses taught, 1 page narrative letter of nomination clearly identifying the outstanding qualities of the nominee

Frequency: 1 award annually

Judge: DCP Awards Committee will provide a recommendation for the Dean. Dean will make a final decision.

Award: Monetary award of $200.00; Certificate; Recognition at DCP Faculty and Staff Awards