

DCP Graduate Faculty Teaching Award

Purpose: Recognize faculty members for their outstanding teaching performance of graduate students.

Evaluation Criteria:

- Evidence of continued outstanding teaching performance with graduate students
- Strong evidence of graduate student success and excellence (awards, publications, scholarships, etc.)
- Graduate teaching evaluations for past 3 years
- Letters of support from graduate students

Eligibility: All graduate DCP faculty and lecturers, not be a prior winner of the DCP Graduate Faculty Teaching Award within the past 5 years.

Nomination: Nominations may be submitted by graduate students, faculty, and staff.

Application: Nominees need to submit a 2 page (max) statement describing their teaching philosophy and outstanding teaching qualities, 3 letters of support from previous or current students (1 page max each), and a list of courses taught and teaching evaluations for the past 3 years (max 6 pages). Applications should be no longer than 13 pages total, including this nomination form.

Frequency: 1 award annually

Judge: DCP Awards Committee will provide a recommendation for the Dean. Dean will make a final decision.

Award: Monetary award of $200.00; Certificate; Recognition at DCP Faculty and Staff Awards